Counsel may file a stipulation that preserves a record of the court's ruling on questioning of Plaintiff SJ as to sexual conduct. If counsel are unable to agree on a stipulation, Defendants may file a proposed order and Plaintiffs' counsel may file objection within 5 court days.

The court rules on Plaintiffs' request to extend the 48-hour notice of sensitive deposition topics to three business days. The court denies the specific relief requested by Plaintiffs but revises the language of the Minute Order of Nov. 14 regarding required notice to provide as follows: When counsel for a Defendant intends to pursue a line of questioning with a witness that involves sexual conduct, criminal conduct or drug use, Defense counsel should alert Plaintiff's counsel to the general topic of the anticipated questioning at least 72 hours prior to the deposition so that counsel can meet and confer about the relevance of the anticipated topic of questioning.

For the reasons stated on the record, the court grants Defendants' request for an additional 45 minutes of questioning of bellwether discovery pool Plaintiffs Moore and Booth.

Regarding priority fact witnesses whom Defendants are unable to serve, the court orders as follows: Within 7 calendar days of today's date, Defense Counsel are to provide Plaintiffs' Counsel with a list of the priority fact witnesses they have not been able to locate. If Plaintiffs' Counsel cannot provide reliable assurances that such witness(es) will appear or provide reliable contact information within 5 calendar days thereafter, Defendants may select an alternative priority witness.

Regarding the P.M.-Y Deposition, for the reasons stated on the record, the court orders that Defendants may not question this Plaintiff about her use of the internet site "Chaterbate." Defense counsel may ask this Plaintiff questions about other websites this Plaintiff has used, but not about any sexual content on such websites.

Regarding a Plaintiff's assertion of spousal privilege in response to a question, the following guidance was provided by the court: If Plaintiff's counsel instructs the witness not to answer based on spousal privilege, Defense counsel nevertheless may inquire as to: (1) Whether Plaintiff intends to follow her/his counsel's instruction and not answer questions about communications with his/her spouse, and (2) Whether the communication was confidential, e.g., what made it confidential – Did the witness tell his/her spouse not to tell anyone about the communication? Was there some other understanding with the spouse that the information would not be communicated to others?

Regarding Defendants' request for CSAM metadata, the parties are to follow the court's prior orders on this subject. If there is a serious, good-faith dispute over whether the orders are being filled, after meeting and conferring, counsel for Defendant may request leave to file a discovery motion on this subject.

Court and counsel discussed the lengthy segment of the Status Report discussing Plaintiffs' requests for enforcement of Defendants' production responsibilities regarding bellwether usage data. The court states that it will not, without a motion by Plaintiffs, order cost-shifting relative to this discovery or sanction Defendants for failure to meet completion deadlines. The court also indicated that questioning Plaintiffs or other witnesses based on Defendants' usage data may be objected to by Plaintiffs' counsel to preserve an objection, but that Plaintiffs' counsel would not be permitted to instruct the witness not to answer the question.

The court ordered counsel to meet and confer off the record to attempt to address Plaintiffs' request for a deadline for production and completion of all discovery in this category by Defendants and to discuss methods for dealing with interpretation of the data produced and assurances that data that was not provided is indeed unavailable to Defendants. After meeting and conferring, counsel put on the record the status of their meet and confer discussions as to each Defendant and their plans to continue the process of agreeing on these issues and the timing of such discussions.

The court ordered that within 7 calendar days, Defendants are to complete production of bellwether usage data and correction of any previously produced bellwether usage data.

The court agreed to the following briefing schedule on the Plaintiffs' Motion to Temporarily Lift the School District Stay: Motion filed Jan. 6, 2025; Opposition filed Feb. 3, 2025; Reply filed Feb. 11, 2025; hearing Feb. 19, 2025 at 9:00 AM.
